Mr. L. T. Plummer,
Chinese Inspector,
Chicago, Ill.

Sir:

A Chinese person by the name of Tom Pok Wing of this city, who is a stockholder in the firm of Wing Lung Co., 208 West Water St., Chinese merchants, desires to go to China, and to get proper credentials for that purpose.

This mercantile firm is the one owned by Charley Toy, the restaurant man, that is to say, he is principal owner. Tom Pok Wing has a thousand dollar interest in the business, and for the past year has been a sort of traveling representative of the company, selling goods to other Chinamen, and working in the place of business selling goods to Chinamen who called there, and attending to the shipping and receiving of goods.

I believe the usual credentials are an affidavit by the Chinaman, setting forth the facts as to his being a merchant, with his picture attached, and the affidavits of two reputable American citizens who can corroborate the facts set up by the Chinaman.

If you have any forms for that purpose, will you kindly send them to me, and if not, can you send me copy of some record of this kind which you may have in your office?

Thanking you for your courtesy, I am

Respectfully yours,

E. J. Plummer
Asst. U. S. Attorney.
