CHICAGO

September 26, 1906.

Case of : L. T. Plummer, Examining Inspector.
MOY SUN, :
Mer. Ret. : D. Arthur Plunly, Stenographer.

Witness, MOY SAM, sworn by Inspector Plummer, testified
(in English):

Q What is your name?

A Moy Sam.

Q You are the manager of the firm of Tai Wah & Co.?

A Yes, sir.

Q How long have you been manager of that firm?

A I used to be a member of the firm of Quong Wah Chung & Co. and then when the firm's name was changed to Tai Wah I became manager and have been manager ever since.

Q Do you know this man (showing photo of applicant)?

A Yes, it is Moy Sun, my partner.

Q How long have you known him?

A Since we first changed the name of the firm of Tai Wah & Co.

Q Where is he now?

A He is in China.

Q What was his business before he went to China?

A Chinese grocery; merchant; member of the firm of Tai Wah & Co.

Q What interest in the firm did he have?

A I haven't looked at the books lately but he has the same interest as at the time he went away. I think it is $1100.00.

Q Have you sent him any money since he has been in China?

A Yes, but very little.

Q Has that money you have sent him decreased his interest in your firm in any way?

A No. He has written us and we have sent him money for his expenses. We have sent him about $200.00.

Q What will Moy Sun do when he comes back to the United States?

A He will come back into the store.

Q What is the condition of your firm's business now as compared with the time that he went away three years ago?

A Just about the same.

Q Have you anything further that you care to say?

A No, sir; that's all.

Witness signed his testimony in English:
