Sir:-

In the matter of YEP NOM, Chinese laborer, ad interim investigation,
I beg leave to report as follows:

At the time of his departure for China, this applicant who was a resident of Ripon, Wis. based his application upon a deposit of $1,000.00 in the First National Bank of Ripon. He exhibited a certificate of deposit as substantiation of his claim..

I communicated with the First National Bank of Ripon to ascertain whether or not this money is still on deposit in that bank in the name of applicant, and a reply was received this day to the effect that the money is still on deposit in the bank. Upon this showing, I believe that applicant is entitled to be notified that he will be admitted upon his return.

Respectfully,

Chinese Inspector.

Respectfully approved and forwarded to Commissioner of Immigration, Seattle, Wash.
in reply to his letter No. 5709-C of April 22, 1910 and returning all papers forwarded therewith.

Dear Sir:-

We beg to say, in reply to your inquiry of the 29th., that the person you name, Yep Nom, a Chinaman, deposited One Thousand Dollars with this bank on July 8th. last. We at that time gave him our Certificate of Deposit for the amount, which Certificate we presume he still holds, as it remains unpaid on our books.

We believe that Yep Nom intends again to take up his residence in Ripon, as we understand him to be a partner in the local Chinese laundry.

Very Truly Yours,

Gentlemen:-

I beg to say that a former resident of Ripon, Wis., YEP NON by name, claims to have on deposit in your bank the sum of one thousand dollars.

At the time of his departure for China in July, 1909, YEP NON produced a certificate of deposit in his favor issued by your bank in that sum. I beg to request that you inform me whether or not this money is still on deposit in your bank. In order for YEP NON to return to the United States from China where he now is, it is necessary for this sum of money to have remained with you during his absence.

An early reply is requested.

Respectfully,
