IMMIGRATION FILE

SUBJECT: MOY FUNG

IN THE MATTER OF MOY FUNG, ALLEGED MERCHANT, INDIANAPOLIS, INDIANA, APPLICANT FOR DEPARTURE VIA PORTAL, N.D.

Indianapolis, Indiana, May 27th, 1904.

WITNESS SWORN: L. T. PLUMMER-----INSPECTOR.

- Q. What is your name?
A. Moy Fung.
Q. What is your business?
A. Merchant at #152 N. Delaware St.
Q. How old are you?
A. 32.
Q. When did you come to the United States the first time?
A. I came through San Francisco in 1888, in July I think it was.
Q. What kind of a paper did you come in on?
A. I forget; my Father sent for me to come over. He was in California, a cook; I was young then.
Q. What is your father's name?
A. Moy Sing Toy. My Father died after I had been in the United States six or seven months; then I came to Chicago.
Q. Did you get registered?
A. No, at the time the Chinamen got registered I was sick and could not get registered.
Q. When the other Chinamen got registered, what kind of a business were you in?
A. I was in the tea business at #118 N. Delaware St., Indianapolis.
Q. Who was the Doctor when you were sick?
A. Dr. Frantz. (The witness to the applicant's paper.)
Q. How long have you been in Indianapolis?
A. I came here first in about 1890; went back to China in 1894; and came to this country in 1898; stayed about three years in Indianapolis; then went to Muncie, Indiana, and settled up my uncle's estate, Sam Sing Lee; stayed there about two years and a half, frequently coming back to this store. I lived here in this store as much or more than in Muncie, and I was trying to sell goods in the towns about while I was in Muncie.
Q. Did you do any work in that laundry while you were in Muncie?
A. No, my uncle started a laundry in Muncie; then he put in some goods; then he took in a partner, Mark Him; then he began to be sick and sold the laundry to Mark Him, and he tried to sell goods. I went over frequently to help him, and after he died I sold out what there was in that laundry and came back to Indianapolis.
Q. Don't you do any work in this laundry?
A. No.
Q. Don't you men in this store own and run the laundry?
A. No, we don't. The laundry is owned and run by Pank Yim and Pang Doah. We rent this place and they pay us $20.00 a month for what they use.
