IMMIGRATION SERVICEOFFICE OF THE COMMISSIONER
SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.

No. 1903-C.

June 26, 1905.

Chinese Inspector in Charge,
Chicago, Ill.

Sir:

Herewith enclosed please find for investigation and report the record in the case of TOY MON LEE, a Chinese merchant of Chicago who departed from this port on the Steamship Korea on February 2, 1904, claiming to be a member of the firm of QUONG WAH SING & CO., of No. 181 Wabash Ave.,

My reason for requesting this investigation is to ascertain if possible whether or not there is any truthfulness in the statements contained in the enclosed letter which was received this morning from Chicago, signed "Sam Wang."

Respectfully,

W. R. North Commissioner.

Mr Ulrich says that at certain seasons of the year he would call at the store frequently or over a week, and at other times it might be a month between calls, and nearly always has seen this man in the store.

He has also called in regard to importations at Mr Ulrich's office from him 3 or 4 years, and regarded him as one of the prominent members of this firm,
