Mr. L. T. Plummer,

Chinese Inspector in Charge,

Chicago, Ill.

Sir:

I enclose herewith P.O. Money Order for $4.00 being refund of head tax deposited by Young Jin, who died in the detention house here on November 2nd, with the request that you deliver this to Young Jin's friends who arranged for the reception of the body, to be forwarded to Young Jin's wife in China. I would have forwarded this direct to China, but for the fact that I have not Young Jin's married name, and for this reason might not get farther than the store in Hong Kong, in whose care I would forward it.

Respectfully,

No. 600.

June 15th, 1908.

Mr. L. T. Plummer,
Chinese Inspector in Charge,
Chicago, Ill.

Sir:-

Pursuant to your instructions that I make an ad interim investigation in the case of YOUNG JIN, laborer of this city now in China, I wish to report the following.

I have examined Yung Joe, and Yung Fong, the two alleged debtors and enclose a transcript of the notes taken. These men state that they still owe the applicant the same amounts that they did at the time of his departure, and that there has been no change in the debts or obligations in any way since that time. I, therefore, would recommend that the applicant be admitted upon his return.

Respectfully,

Chinese Inspector.

June 15th, 1908.

Case of Young Jin,

Lab. Dep. : L.T. Plummer,

Examining Inspector,

: J.G.C. Longchallion,

Interpreter,

: A.T. Wilson,

Stenographer.

Applicant, YOUNG JIN, sworn by Inspector Plummer, testified:

Q What is your name? A Young Jin.

Q What is your business? A Laundryman.

Q Do you own a laundry at the present time? A No.

Q On what do you base your right to a return certificate? A People owe me money.

Q Who owes you money and how much? A Young Joe owes me $725; Yung Fong owes me $650.

Q Are both these debts genuine, or have you made them up so that you can go to China? A They are true.

Q Tell me how this debt of Yung Joe was incurred? (Witness produces account book, and Interpreter reads - "K.S. 32, 26th day, 9th month, loaned Young Joe $725.")

Q Where did this loan take place, and what was the purpose of it? A He borrowed the money to put in a laundry. The loan took place in South Clark Street, in my room.

Q Do you know where the laundry was? A On 71st Street.

Q When did you put this down in your book? A The entry was made when I loaned him the money.

Q Did he give you any note for the money? A No.

Q Where did you get this money to loan him? A I earned it.

Q How did Young Joe know that you had this money to lend? A He knew that I had taken the money from the Loan Association, and he asked me to lend him that amount to put in a laundry.

Q Did he tell you why he had no money of his own at that time? A No, he didn't tell me why he had no money of his own.

Q How long have you known him? A Since he was a little boy.

Q What is his full Chinese name? A Young Joe, etc.

Q Tell me how the debt of Yung Fong was incurred? A K.S. 32, 11th day, 2nd month, money loaned him, Yung Fong, $650.

Q Did you loan Yung Fong this money all at one time? A No, but I put it altogether, $650. He made it several loans.

Q What do you mean by "he made it several loans"? A I don't remember, I think about two or three times. I put it all together, $650.

Q How long a time elapsed between the first loan you made Yung Fong and the last one you made him? A Three years between the first and the third loan; the first loan was paid.

Q How much was the first loan for, that was paid? A $200.

Q How much was the first loan of these two that comprise this $650? A $200; that took place in early part of January, K.S. 32; the second loan took place in K.S. 32, 11th day, 2nd month, $450; all together, $650.

Q What did he want to do with this money? A Put in a laundry at 53rd Street, South Side.

Q How much money did he put into that laundry? A Over $2,000.

Q Two thousand of his own money? A There are other partners.

Q How much did this man put in? A $650.

Q Did he have any money of his own? A No, he hadn't any of his own; that is why he borrowed from me to put into the laundry.

Q Why didn't you put your money in instead of his borrowing money to put in? A At that time I had a laundry of my own, and this man didn't have any laundry of his own, and he asked me for the money, so I loaned it to him; now that I am going to China, he cannot pay me, so I will let it go until I come back.

Q You know if these are not true debts I might prevent you from coming back from China, dont you? A This is a true debt; he did borrow the money from me.

Q Have you understood the Interpreter? A Yes.

Witness, YUNG JOE, sworn by Inspector Plummer, testified:

Q What is your name? A Yung Joe.

Q What is your business? A Laundryman.

Q Do you own a laundry at the present time; if so, where it is located? A I am working at a laundry at 426 West 71st Street.

Q Do you own that laundry there, or just work there? A The laundry is mine.

Q Are you registered? A Yes.

(Witness produces certificate No. 120743, Yong Chin,
New York, April 5, 1894.)

Q Do you know this man (showing photo of applicant)? A Yes, Young Jin.

Q What is his full Chinese name? A Young Jin is all the name he has.

Q How long have you known him? A I know him since from the old country.

Q If you owe him any money tell me how the debt was incurred? A Yes, I owe him $725; last year, K.S.32, either the 25th or 26th day of the 9th month, I borrowed the money to put in a laundry that I own now. The loan took place in his room on South Clark Street; I do not remember the number.

Q Did you buy this laundry on 71st Street at that time? A Yes.

Q How much did you pay for it? A $1300.

Q Chinese or American? A American money.

Q Where did you get the balance of the money? A The rest was my own.

Q Where did Young Jin get this money that he loaned you? A He saved it from his wages, and he got part from the Loan Association.

Q How did you know he had it? A I asked him to lend me some money if he had any money to lend me. He said yes, and I borrowed that amount from him.

Q Did you give him any note for it? A No.

Q Did you put it down in your book? A Yes.

Q Let me see it? A I left it in my laundry.

Q When are you going to pay him? A When he comes from China.

Q How many men do you work in the laundry? A Four men, including myself.

Q Is this a true debt or have you made it up so that this man can go to China? A It is a true debt.

Q Have you understood the Interpreter? A Yes.

- Q What is your name? A Young Fong.
Q What is your occupation? A Laundryman.
Q Do you own a laundry at the present time; if so, where is it located? A I have an interest in a laundry on 53rd Street.
Q How long have you had that interest? A Over a year.
Q Do you know this man (showing photo of applicant)? A Yes, it is Young Jin.
Q Why do you owe him money? A I borrowed it to put in this laundry I am in.
Q How much did you borrow? A $650.
Q How much did you put in? A $650.
Q Didn't you have any money of your own? A No.
Q Why not? A I had spent all I earned.
Q Did you borrow this all at one time? A No, twice.
Q Give dates and amounts of loans? A I borrowed $200, January, K.S. 32; I dont remember the day, and on February 11th, same year, I borrowed $450. The loan took place in his room on Clark St.
Q Why did you borrow it in two loans? A The first loan was not enough, so I made a second loan.
Q Put it all into that laundry? A Yes.
Q Had you ever borrowed money before of this man? A Yes, I borrowed $200 of him about three years before this.
Q Is this a true debt, or have you made it up? A It is true.
Q When will you pay him? A After he returns.
Q Why haven't you paid some before? A Labor and other expenses are high, and we dont make much money.
Q Have you understood the Interpreter? A Yes.
