Page two

Witness, NGI GOON SING, sworn by Inspector Plummer, testified:
(In English)

What is your name?

Ngi Goon Sing.

What is your American name?

Allen Chung.

What is your business?

Commission merchant at South Water St.

How long have you had that business? Since March, 1907. Do you know this man? (Showing photograph of applicant) A Yes, it is Wong Ong. I have known him since I was in Los Angelos, in college there.

Do you owe him any money?

Yes, $1,200.00. What for?

- I got the money from him to put in my business on South Water St.
  - When did you borrow it from him?

A February, 1908.

Is that American or Chinese February?

Chinese.

Why did you need the money?

- A To buy more goods to put in the store. Business is very uncertain sometimes. You have a whole lot of goods on hand and you don't sell any. Othertimes you have lots of business but no goods.
  - Did you give Wong Ong a note for this money?

A No sir.

QX Did you give him any security?

Was there any understanding at the time this loan was made that he could take an interest in your business in case you didn't pay him back?

A No, we did not make any such proposition.

Q When will you pay him?

A I will wait until he comes back.

Is this a genuine debt or have you made it up so that Wong Ong can go to China?

No, it is a true debt. It was not made up.

Q Have you any partners in your business?

A No. I am alone.

Q What do you do? A commission business, or buy and sell on your own account?

A I buy goods down on the street, then I sell them.

What is the value of the goods that you have on hand usually, approximately?

A Sometimes we sell three or four crates of onions in a day. Sometimes 300 crates in a day. They sell for about 75g a crate. You can't tell how many. One day Wahave a whole lot in, the next they are all gone. Yesterday, King Jo Lo bought 300 crates and Hong Fong Lo bought 350 crates.

Q Have you understood my questions?

A Yes sir.

Applicant, WONG ONG, sworn by Inspector Plummer, testified:

What is your name?

A

Wong Ong.
What is your full Chinese name?
Wong Ong is the only name I have.

Are you married?

No. A

What is your occupation?

Waiter.

Upon what do you base your right to a return certificate?

That people owe me money.

Give me the name of your debtor and the amount? Ngi Goon Sing owes me $1,200.00.

How was this debt incurred?

A This year, second month, second day, he borrowed $1,200.00 from me, and the loan took place at State and 22nd Sts.

Q What did he borrow this money for?

To put in a business. What kind of a business?

In a business on South Water St.

How long have you known him?

I have known him a long time, since he was in California.

What is his American name?

Allen Chung.

Where did you earn this money? I saved it from my earnings?

Did he give you any note for this money? No, as we are good friends he did not give me a note. Suppose he doesn't pay you, can you take the business or a part of it?

A I am not afraid, as we are friends.

Was there any understanding at the time the debt was made that you could have his business or an interest in his business as security for the money?

A No, there was nothing said about that. Q Why would you lend him so much money as this without security?

A He is a good friend and I trust him.

Q Is he a relative of yours? A No we are related. We are just friends. Q Did you put this loan down in your book?

A Yes. (Witnesses produces book containing numerous entries Interpreter reads, "K.S. 34, 2nd month, 2nd day, lent Ngi Goon Sing $1,200.00.")

Q When did you put that down in your book? A About a week after the loan was made.

Is this a genuine debt, or have you made it up so that you can go to China?

A It is a true debt.

Q Have you understood the interpreter? A. Yes.
